URGE ARBITRATION FOR GRAND TRUNK

Canadian Industries Affected by Big Strike.

PUBLIC DEMANDING ACTION

Government Announces Willingness to Pay Court of Arbitration, but Neither Side Has Asked for Settlement—Passenger Trains Running,
but Freight Is Tied Up.

Ottawa, July 20.—Industrial conditions through Canada are affected by the Grand Trunk Railway trainmen's strike. The public is beginning to call on the labor department to try to settle the trouble. It is announced that the government will pay the costs of arbitration and the labor department appoint an arbitration board, if those concerned can get together. So far there is little sign of their doing so.

A serious feature of the strike has been the closing down of the Grand Trunk shops all over the system. These men thrown out of work had no grievances of any kind and get no strikers' benefit. The Massey Harris works at Toronto were blocked up, being unable to move loaded cars out or empty cars in, their only siding being a Grand Trunk run. They had twelve carloads of freight waiting to be shipped. It was transferred to the Canadian Pacific Railway in wagons.

Commission May Intervene.
The railway commission exercises great authority over the railways generally, and the question has arisen as to whether it will intervene in any way in the present Grand Trunk Railroad difficulty. Most of the commissioners are out of town, but inquiry made at the offices to-day elicited the reply that the board would hardly move of its own initiative.

At the post-office department it is stated that there have been no official complaints as to the mail service being interfered with.

"So far as we are advised," said Dr. Coulter, deputy postmaster general, "the mails are being handled, but with delay in some cases."

To-day all Ottawa passenger trains left on schedule time, but freight trains were delayed or canceled.

Freight Is Tied Up.
Chicago, July 20.—Grand Trunk freight traffic is still tied up at this end of the line, but the through passenger and suburban service is not interrupted.

White River Junction, Vt., July 20.—Three car-loads of strike-breakers arrived here from New York early. After leaving 100 here, the train proceeded North, scattering the men at stations along the way. All of these men, the railroad officials claim, are experienced trainmen.

No attempt to move the stalled freight trains was made, but one is expected before another twenty-hour hours have elapsed.

Portland, Me., July 20.—A meat famine in Portland, for a few days at least, will be one of the effects of the strike on the Grand Trunk line, as all of the Portland wholesale houses furnishing retailers not only in this city, but all over the western portion of the State, have practically empty refrigerators.

ENGLISH STRIKE HOURLY BECOMING MORE SERIOUS

Newcastle, England, July 20.—The strike movement against the Northeastern Railway was strengthened steadily to-day. Ten thousand men had quit work last night, and every hour since, has brought reports of further desertions.

The regular passenger trains were still being operated this afternoon with fair regularity, but the company was obliged to "commandeer" the services of station masters and clerks in order to man the few local trains that it was able to move.

The situation along the River Tyne grows increasingly serious. Paralytic is extending through the local trade. Scores of coal ships are tied up unable to obtain cargoes. Many factories in the vicinity have shut down pending the outcome of

TAFT AND EMERY TO DISCUSS TARIFF

Chairman of Commission at Bar Harbor To-day.

PRESIDENT ON THE GOLF LINKS

Enjoys Game on the Kebo Valley Club Course, While Other Members of Presidential Party Go Coaching. Maine Politicians Making Most of the Visit of Chief Executive.

Bar Harbor, Me., July 20.—Although President Taft came to Bar Harbor to enjoy the social life of the resort, he does not intend to let the social side interfere with business.

The President left it known to-day that Prof. H. C. Emery, chairman of the tariff commission, will reach Bar Harbor to-morrow. He has just returned from a trip of investigation in Europe, and especially in Germany. His investigations were directed mainly toward obtaining a basis for a comparison of cost of production here and abroad.

The President probably will see Mr. Emery on board the Mayflower. He wants to talk to the chairman before he sees the whole commission at Beverly next month. It is understood that Mr. Emery's researches may furnish ammunition for speeches in defense of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law in the fall campaign.

Yachts Bedecked with Pennants.

The Mayflower, with the President, Mrs. Taft and their guests aboard, dropped anchor off Bar Harbor shortly before 3 o'clock. There were no old war veterans to lug out battle-dented muzzles, and the big, glistening yachts in the harbor strung out yards and yards of pennants of color and the whistles tooted shrill welcome.

Mr. Taft did not land until 4 o'clock. Senator Hale, of Maine, had come over from Ellsworth to talk to him about his visit to Bangor on Saturday, and that delayed the President's landing. There was only a few of the summer folks down to see the President, but lots of Maine citizens were there, and they cheered right well.

First Selectman J. M. Bunker, whose position corresponds to that of Mayor Gaynor in that he entertains all distinguished visitors, took Mr. Taft for a ride about Mount Desert Island, but the lure of the game was strong, and before 5 o'clock came Mr. Taft was on the links of the Kebo Valley Club.

Others Go Coaching.
He came ashore wearing a double-breasted blue serge coat with flannel trousers and a gray fedora hat, but changed to other togs at Kebo. Mrs. Taft and the others of the party went coaching. Philip Livingston, of New York, was host and toiled the coach.

The President told friends when he landed that the letter which Judge Reynolds Kinkadee, of Toledo, carried from Beverly to Oyster Bay was merely an introductory message from him to Col. Roosevelt. Judge Kinkadee is a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination of the Republican party in Ohio and desired the endorsement of President Taft and Col. Roosevelt. The President told some friends that Judge Kinkadee asked for an introductory letter, and that was all he got.

It is likely that the Maine politicians will make much of the President's visit to Bangor. It became known to-day that, in addition to Senator Hale, former Gov. Cobb, former Gov. John P. Hill, Representative Edwin C. Burleigh, and Byron Boyd, chairman of the Republican State committee, will come over to Bar Harbor to escort the President to Bangor. Still he does not intend to talk politics publicly.

The Mayflower party were guests to-night at dinner at the cottage of Mrs. Henry F. Dimock. They went back aboard ship to sleep.

WORK OF TARIFF BOARD SLOW, SAYS PROF. EMERY

New Haven, Conn., July 20.—Prof. Henry C. Emery, of Yale, who is chairman of the national tariff board, stopped over here to-day to see Yale friends. He has just returned from Germany, where he went in the interest of the tariff commission. He corrected some false impressions of the work already done by the commission. He said:

"Instead of having nearly completed our work, we have really only begun. When the commission was made up last night the members started right in to investigate. They looked into what had already been done by other countries to protect themselves against the tariff, what measures they took, and what methods they used. This investigation took practically all winter. Then the question of an appropriation to continue the work came up. That was in May, and while it was in process of settlement I went abroad."

"I spent most of the time in Germany. There I talked with officials to find out, if possible, what they had done on tariff protection, the organization of boards, how they proposed to regulate the subject, and numerous other things in connection with the question."

"There seems to be a wrong idea of what the commission is doing and how much they have done. Our report is not nearly ready, as has been stated. In fact, it has not been fairly begun. I am not sure whether there will be any published report at all. We can't tell just yet what we will do."

Prof. Emery left for Maine this afternoon, and will attend a banquet to-night given by the judges of the Supreme Court to his father, who is chief justice and who is to-day celebrating his seventieth birthday. He will see President Taft while in Maine, where he will remain for the summer.

HELD FOR CUSTOMS FRAUDS.

Alexander Hollander Said to Have Robbed Government.

New York, July 20.—Alexander Hollander, who was arrested in Naples to-day, was the head of the customs brokerage firm of Alexander Hollander & Co., of 82 Wall street, and was doing a big business as importing and shipping agent until he left for other climes about the middle of last January.

At that time Assistant District Attorney Henry A. Wise and United States Marshall Henckel, grew interested in the business methods of the Hollander firm, and, together with the Secret Service men, have been trying to locate Hollander ever since. It is said his frauds cost the government $250,000.

POLICE MAY JAIL JONAH'S DISCIPLE

ther and mother living back in Norway, broken-hearted.

"When the mother learned of the way in which her daughter had been hypnotized by the negro 'prophet,' she did what she could to urge her to return home. Hilda still clung to the 'faith' of the negro."

"A letter just received yesterday by Hilda informed her of the death of her mother, and it has almost broken the poor girl's heart. We have talked kindly to her, and she is now fully repentant and realizes the mistake she made. She is willing to give up Sturdivant and his religion and will return to New York with Mrs. Barrett to live with her married sister in Brooklyn. Finally, she will go back to her father in Norway."

"I wish you would say a good word for old 'Mother' Williams," continued Mrs. Graves. "She is a fine old negro mammy, who did not know that the girls who were living with her were connected in the way in which they were with Sturdivant."

"These girls represented themselves as missionary workers, and while they paid their room rent whenever they had the money, they depended very largely upon the charity of Mother Williams, who has no connection with Sturdivant, but she is, on the other hand, a member of the Nineteenth Street Baptist Church. Mother Williams told me she never dreamed of the story behind the harboring of the girls or that it would bring so much notoriety."

Mother Williams Objected.

It has been learned in the investigation of the case that Nels Nelson, the Swede, who was one of the members of the band arrested in Washington on February 7 last and taken to Baltimore to be used as a witness against Sturdivant, tried a number of times to visit Frederica Nightingale, the Jamaica girl, at the Twentieth street house, but Mother Williams objected, and he had to meet the negroes in the park.

Sturdivant and his followers came to Washington February 5 last as fugitives from the police of Baltimore. Sturdivant immediately after arriving here went to a house at 465 Third street southwest and engaged room and board for himself and "wife."

Shortly afterward he returned with a white woman, and as the woman who ran the house was an old-fashioned negro she said she was shocked at the fact there had been a black and white marriage. This white woman afterward proved to be Hilda Johnston. Gradually Sturdivant brought in the other women and represented them as his missionaries.

REV. N. C. BRACKETT DEAD.

Treasurer of Storor College at Harper's Ferry for Many Years.

Harper's Ferry, W. Va., July 20.—Rev. N. C. Brackett died this morning at the residence of his brother-in-law, Henry Lightner, at this place, after a long illness. He had undergone two severe operations during the winter for trouble in his head, which finally proved fatal. He was seventy-four years of age, and treasurer of Storor College when he died.

His wife was Nancy Louise Wood, of Maine, who survives him, besides four children, J. W. Brackett, chairman of the Fish and Game Association, of Maine; L. J. Brackett, engaged in the publishing business in Boston; Mrs. Thomas E. Robertson, of Washington, D. C.; and Rev. Mrs. J. C. Newcomer, of Boxwood, Va. The funeral will take place Friday morning from Free Will Baptist Church, and interment will be in the old Harper graveyard.

MIDDIES GET DIPLOMAS.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Two Who Failed to Pass in June Are Finally Graduated.

Annapolis, Md., July 20.—Two of the four midshipmen of the class that was graduated from the Naval Academy on June 3, but whose diplomas were withheld because of failure in the final examination, to-day received their coveted "sheepskins," having successfully passed the reexaminations allowed them last week. They are Charles E. Battle, of Georgia, and Howard A. Flanagan, of New York.

Battle has been ordered to duty aboard the battleship North Carolina, while Flanagan has been assigned to the battleship Connecticut.

The cases of the other two midshipmen who did not receive diplomas in June for the same reason and who were also re-examined are still held up, but for what reason the academy authorities did not state. These two are Herbert O. Gotsch, of Oregon, and Thomas A. Nicholson, of Kentucky.

PULLMAN RATES TOO HIGH.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 20.—The Indiana railroad commission, following an opinion by Chairman Wood, ordered the Pullman company, operating cars between this city and Terre Haute, to reduce its parlor car rate from 40 to 25 cents.

The commission holds that a mileage basis is not a fair one for the establishment of rates. It said that the Pullman company does not own any of the road over which the cars pass; that it contributes nothing to the upkeep, and that it does not contribute anything to the cost of hauling.

Another consideration entering into the case was the fact that there are several trains running between Terre Haute and Indianapolis, composed entirely of Pullman cars, and that any one using these trains is compelled to pay the Pullman rate.

"The announcement of the finding in this case, coming on the eve of the commission's projected consideration of freight rate cases for interstate traffic, is looked on as outlining the attitude with which the commission will approach the freight hearings."

Work for Gaynor in Ohio.

Toledo, Ohio, July 20.—There is a sentiment because of State pride for the selection of Gov. Harmon as the national standard bearer for the Democratic party in 1912, Robert J. Beatty, of Columbus, general secretary of the National League of Democratic Clubs, who is in Toledo, says that there is an undercurrent in favor of the nomination of Mayor Gaynor, of New York City. Beatty is here for the purpose of furthering organizations of county Democratic clubs.

Gomez Signs Railway Bill.
Havana, July 20.—President Gomez has signed the bill providing for the exchange of the arsenal property for the Villanueva station of the United Railways. It was this bill which caused the recent attempt by Congressman Lores to kill Congressman San Miguel, editor of La Lucha, who denounced the exchange scheme as a colossal fraud. Senor San Miguel is now in New York.

STAYING AT HOME.
 I'm tired of moving pictures, and other glaring shows; I'm tired of hearing lectures delivered through the nose. I'm tired of stately shriekers who for an office yell, and weary of the speakers who'd bind me with a spell. A book by Doyle or Dante spread out upon my knee, and my old one-horse shanty is good enough for me. I used to spend the gloaming and sometimes half the night, in idle, bughouse roaming, in search of cheap delight; I liked the noise and glamour, the greetings and the stares, the rushing and the clamor of city thoroughfares; but now I'm old and wiser, I like my vine and tree; my shack and Jane Elizer are good enough for me. I love my pea-green cottage; I love each brick and board; for such a mess of pottage as halls and streets afford, I surely would not trade it at any man's behest; my frau and I have made it the place we love the best. The streets are always crawling with packed humanity; "come home," Elizer's calling—that's good enough for me!

BRYAN IS BEATEN ON COUNTY OPTION
AGAINST HUSBAND
 Opposition Has Enough Votes
to Control Convention.
 New York, July 20.—Charging that her husband, Hans Mahler, had left her employed, and thus violated a contract entered into between them, Mrs. Emily Mahler asked Justice Bischoff, in the Supreme Court to-day, that he be enjoined from working for the Maldurn Importing Company, dealers in imported European confections, where, she asserts, he is now employed. Mrs. Mahler also asked that the Maldurn company be restrained from continuing to employ Mahler.

Theodore B. Richter appeared on behalf of Mrs. Mahler; her husband was represented by Charles A. Riegelman, and the Maldurn Importing Company had as counsel Fulton McMahon. Mrs. Mahler averred that she was the owner of the majority of the stock in Hans Mahler & Co., which trades in imported confections at 41 East Ninth street, and which was incorporated some years ago with a capital of $25,000. Mrs. Mahler alleged that she and her husband came here in 1905 and started her company. She came to the conclusion, for reasons which did not appear on the argument, that it would be well if she entered into a contract with her husband, under which he was to have a salary of $15 a week for looking after the business, and was to bind himself not to work for any other person or corporation during the existence of the contract.

Mrs. Mahler then sent him to Europe to sell stock of the company, which he did. On his return he became dissatisfied at the way Mrs. Mahler managed the business, and believing he was not sufficiently remunerated, left and obtained employment from the Maldurn Importing Company at a higher salary.

BRIbery CHARGE PRESSED.
 Austin, Tex., July 20.—Gov. Campbell will recommend to the legislature that a committee of senators and representatives be appointed to investigate the charge that has been publicly made on the stump by Cone Johnson, one of the prohibition candidates for governor, that money was used by the liquor interests in the legislature at its last regular session to bring about the defeat of the proposition to submit to a vote of the people a proposed constitutional amendment providing for State-wide prohibition. It is reported that proof will be offered in support of the charges and that a number of members of the legislature are involved in the alleged corrupt transaction.

NO VISITORS AT OYSTER BAY.
 Roosevelt at Work on Speeches for Western Tour.
 Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 20.—Col. Roosevelt enjoyed a day of rest at Sagamore Hill to-day. No visitors, political or social, were received and the colonel had time to run over some of his correspondence and read a bit. He worked most of the morning getting things in shape for the speeches he is going to prepare for the Western trip.

Col. Roosevelt said this afternoon that he expected no visitors to-morrow. His request for a quiet week seems to have been gratified. He will meet whatever callers there are to see him at the Outlook office on Friday late in the afternoon.

The colonel took a long walk with Mrs. Roosevelt to-day. It was cool enough here to suit a pedestrian even as energetic as the colonel is.

CHILD MORTALITY IN SUMMER.
 Every summer the newspapers are full of horrifying stories of the death list among infants and children and extremely old people. In nursing infants and children still being fed largely on milk this is usually due to the quality of the milk itself, and in aged people to a general weakening of the system because of extreme heat. Still, a great many of the deaths are due to digestive trouble, and these can usually be avoided by the timely use of a reliable laxative-tonic. There is no more reliable remedy than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which for a generation has been the reliance of thousands of mothers and which is gaining in favor every year. This remedy, unlike a purgative, salt, laxative water, or "infant medicine," contains nothing that is dangerous to the health of the weakest or youngest person, and it repeated use does not form a habit, as is the case with narcotic remedies for children. Go to your druggist this very day and buy a 50 cent or $1.00 bottle, and like thousands of other parents keep it on hand for an emergency. You can obtain a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE by addressing
